

Our Ongoing Learning

Open, honest exchanges of (best and worst) ideas and experience to nurture meaningful personal and organizational connections across traditional boundaries

“best ideas” – the wall

- an atmosphere of shared learning, knowledge exchange, giving, safety, trust
- create incentives for profits and nonprofits to work together (non-competitive, benefits all, conserves money, effort and resources); donor guidelines to encourage cooperation between ngos; mergers and acquisitions in the nonprofit sector
- competition for social entrepreneurship; San Diego community challenge, sponsorship; Changemaker San Diego; community-focused idea contest with funding attached
- mentor program; Enterprise Network Mentors
- failure fair, setback fair
- create opportunities for people to learn by experiencing things outside their comfort zone
- student exchanges; programs for students to visit and interact with others from different socio-economic backgrounds
- view - education as a means to find happiness
- continuation forums for entrepreneurs
- constructive reflection forums for nonprofits
- online forum for efficient exchange of ideas
- TEDx San Diego on green issues

“rest” – the tables

- Have a forum where people share failures to learn from each other. Build trust.
- information marketplace
- shared vocabulary; common language for all ngos
- learning/sharing via action
- online for a
